FOUR YEARS FOR YOUNG BURGLARS

The institution of the whipping post is the thing appropriate for your kind," declared Circuit Judge Ashford today when he sentenced Charles Cash, Jr., and John Kuanui, who pleaded guilty to first degree burglary, to each serve not less than four years at hard labor in Oahu prison.

Cash and Kuanui recently escaped from Oahu prison. While at liberty they committed several burglaries. Both have long criminal records.

Cash still has three years to serve and Kuanui about six years. Cash is 22 and Kuanui 19 years old. Kuanui formerly was a "trust" in Mayor Lane's office, but committed burglaries and was sent back to jail.

"Put fellows like you in a comfortable prison and you break out," said Judge Ashford. The court ordered that the sentences imposed today begin after the expiration of the terms now being served by the defendants.

CAN GET MEDAL BUT SCHOOL DEPARTMENT MUST STAND EXPENSE

Henry W. Kuehn, superintendent of public instruction, has been notified that the school children of Honolulu have been awarded a gold medal for vocational and needlework exhibited at the Panama-California exposition in 1915. In the last mail he received a blue ribbon award which is now being framed.

The same mail brought the advice that if $20 will be forwarded to the exposition officials to help pay for the gold, or words to that effect, the medal will be sent to Honolulu immediately.

Kuehn says that the school department does not intend to forward the medal.

The First Union Trust Corporation of New York increased its capital from $700,000 to $8,000,000.
